BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF DUTIES

Manages and performs defensive cyber operations and cyber support functions (DoDIN operations) in garrison and at deployed locations. Surveys, secures, protects, defends, preserves, designs, builds, operates, and extends data, networks, net-centric capabilities, and other designated systems. This Air Force Specialty Code description incorporates the use of DoD Cyber Workforce Framework (DCWF) Codes to tie this specialty description to the framework. The DCWF was developed by the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) and the DoD to establish a common lexicon and model for all cyber work. The DCWF will universalize training and education between academia, industry, and military. It will also enable talent management by ensuring the right Airmen, for the right assignment, at the right time.

KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS AND ABILITIES (KSAs) REQUIRED FOR THIS POSITION:

- A. Ability to supervise, plan, schedule, and control the use of communication resources and personnel to meet mission requirements.
- B. Ability to relate expert knowledge of all aspects of communications operations and procedures pertaining to tactical decision-making and management.
- C. Ability to serve as the Communication Squadron Commander's Senior Enlisted and Technical advisor for all communication programs and functions with the wing.
- D. Ability to communicate effectively, both oral and written, in task-saturated, high-stress environments.
- E. Ability to oversee the programs of the Communications Squadron through subordinate leaders that supervise technical and administrative activities within the squadron. Skilled in performing the full scope of supervisory functions to include, but not limited to the assignment of duties, disciplinary actions, interviews and selection of employees.
- F. Experience in planning and developing policies, procedures and goals for the effective administration, direction, management, and operation of CS functions.
- G. Knowledge of IT network systems design principles, methodologies, and approaches used in developing, testing, installing, operating, managing, and maintaining network services that support functional requirements.
- H. Knowledge of network architecture, topology, and protocols sufficient to plan, design, develop, and integrate network systems and security plans and procedures consistent with existing or planned network infrastructures.
- I. Knowledge of methods, techniques, and processes for the integration and optimization of LAN/WAN components, infrastructure requirements, test and evaluation methods sufficient to install and operate base wide programs and provide technical guidance to others in designing, testing, operating, and maintaining network programs.
- J. Knowledge and ability to provide oversight and leadership for all personnel in the Communications Squadron and the accomplishment of a wide range of programs to include the Network Control Center (NCC) and the Wing Cybersecurity Office (WCO).
- K. Ability to oversee and manage NCC level customer support. Ensure effective control of network requirements by providing a central point of contact for actions to include resolving resource conflicts, assisting system users, reviewing outstanding requirements, assessing and validating priorities, and providing solution advice to customer problems.
- L. Ability to analyze functional IT network system requirements, translate findings into functional requirements, develop supportable recommendations for enhancement, and apply a wide range of methodologies and tools.
- M. Ability to maintain an up-to-date awareness of technological advances and predict how management can meet future requirements.
- N. Ability to supervise and manage Title 5 Civilians and Air National Guardsmen.
- O. Ability to oversee Communications Support contracts.
- P. Ability to develop, implement, and maintain work center training programs. Experience in planning, scheduling tasks and training activities for drill status guard members. Ability to oversee and conduct on-the-job training (OJT) for personnel.
