PROBATIONARY PERIOD: In accordance with NGR 600-5, AGR Soldiers will not be reassigned during the first 18 months of their initial tour without waiver. All new employees to the GA ARNG AGR Program shall be probationary for a period of three years following their initial date of hire. Soldiers who do not achieve an acceptable level of performance during their initial FTNGD tour may be released in accordance with AR 135-18, para 2-6a. During this probationary period, the GA ARNG may terminate the individual's employment for any reason. Such action shall not be subject to grievance and arbitration procedures.

PRIOR ACTIVE SERVICE: In the event this vacancy is announced to applicants not already AGR, those Soldiers must be able to serve at least three years in a FTNGD status prior to completing 18 years of Active Federal Service (AFS) or reaching age 60.

SECURITY SCREENING QUESTIONNAIRE: After being selected for a position, AGR applicants will be required to submit a security screening questionnaire to the following address: Joint Force Headquarters, Georgia National Guard, ATTN: Provost Marshal's Office, 1000 Halsey Avenue SE, Bldg 447, Suite S3094, Clay National Guard Center, Marietta, GA 30060. Derogatory information discovered as a result of the background check could cause the selectee to not be in-processed into the AGR program.

NATIONAL GUARD MEMBERSHIP AND ASSIGNMENT REQUIREMENTS: The individual selected for this position will be required to satisfy a stabilization period in accordance with current HRO guidance. Soldiers hired are subject to "command directed" re-assignment anywhere in the state of Georgia, branch transfer or MOS change at any time during their career in order to meet the needs of the organization. Tour continuation is contingent upon satisfactory performance and when applicable, the recommendation of the tour continuation board. In the event this vacancy is filled with a current AGR Soldier, the term will be for the remainder of the current AGR tour. In the event this vacancy is filled with a non-AGR candidate, this tour will be for an initial period of three years. The selected applicant will remain or be placed on Full-Time National Guard Duty (FTNGD) under Title 32, USC Section 502(f). The selectee must be assigned to a compatible military position by paragraph / line as specified in the AGR Staffing Guide. A permanent change of station (PCS) may be authorized, if in the best interest of the government or if the PCS is command directed.

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS DURING THE SELECTION PROCESS AND AGR IN PROCESSING: Applicants will be notified by the hiring / selecting official if in-person interviews will be conducted to fill this position. At the discretion of the hiring / selecting official, applicants may be required to take a diagnostic ACFT or to provide additional documents to the board, such as physical fitness test score cards, body composition calculation forms, profiles, academic evaluation reports, OER / NCOER support forms, MEDPROS IMR Report, etc. Individuals selected for positions should not quit their current jobs, nor enter into any contractual agreements, until selection notification is made by HRO with an effective date of hire / in-processing. Selectees new to the AGR Program will be required to submit a security screening packet to the Provost Marshal's Office (PMO) for a background check; the current version will be E-mailed to the selectee by HRO after the selectee accepts the AGR position. Selectees will also complete the Certificate of Agreement and Understanding found in NGR 600-5,

Appendix B. Per NGR 600-5, para 2-2b, selectees not currently in the AGR Program must provide negative test results for HIV prior to AGR in-processing. HRO will schedule a Chapter 2 / 4 / 5 Physical for the selectee; final medical approval authority for entry into the GAARNG AGR Program is the OIC of Medical Actions Branch (MAB). Applicants who will be promoted to E8, E9, O4, O5, or O6 as a result of their selection must await an NGB controlled grade authorization before being promoted. Soldiers previously separated from the AGR Program may reapply IAW AR 135-18

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY: The Georgia National Guard is an Equal Employment Opportunity Employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for this announcement without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, sex (including gender identity) or sexual orientation.
